ABOUT US

Premio Group has more than 20+ years of experience in printing; specializing in digital and offset printing. From a humble stationery store (under Premio Stationery) back in 1991 to Digital Print Centres (digital and wide format printer) and to Production Printing (Premio Printdepot) in completing a full set of printing services from corporate to large commercial printing.

Premio Printdepot Sdn Bhd is established in 2012, with KDN Printing License (Lesen Mesin Cetak) to fulfilled publishing and commercial printing. It has grown to a complete printing house which also include from digital, offset, inkjet, direct-to-garment printing and to a wider range of finishing services such as foil stamping, binding services on a wide range of paper stocks. We even have an inhouse annual project to design and to produce our yearly Diary and Angpow.

Offering a unique collection of offset and digital technologies, we can get your job printed with responsive approach and a personal touch. With services ranging from straight-forward printing to extensive foiling, die-cutting, binding, assembly, and much more. Other embellishment finishing includes die-cutting, foiling and embossing capabilities are a special touch that not many printers today can specialize.

As the adoption of technology and the demand for quality printing services grow, we make every effort to meet with our customers' needs by adding new services to complement with digital, inkjet & offset printing & services.
